EXPERIENCE

Independent Full-Stack Developer 2024 – Present

- Develop and deploy full-stack web applications using JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Next.js, Tailwind CSS, Node.js, and Supabase.
- Built CVCommit, an AI-powered CV analysis platform integrating the Gemini API to analyze resumes, generate scores, and provide actionable recommendations.
- Built and deployed a full school platform for De Kings Perfection Private School: student result portal, student dashboard, computer-based tests and exams, assignments, and an admin portal.
- Implement REST API integrations, database operations, authentication workflows, and server-side functionality; use Git/GitHub for version control and deployment.

PROJECTS

CVCommit — AI-Powered CV Analysis Platform

Next.js · Typescript · React · Tailwind CSS · Gemini API · Supabase
Live Demo · GitHub

- Built an AI-powered platform that analyzes CVs across six hiring criteria, generating overall scores and actionable recommendations.
- Implemented PDF/DOCX processing, text extraction, validation, and Gemini-powered analysis via Next.js API routes; added CV fingerprinting and caching for performance.
- Developed CV improvement workflow backed by Supabase for data persistence.

De Kings Perfection Private School — School Portal (Results, CBT & Admin)

Next.js · React · TypeScript · Supabase (PostgreSQL) · Vercel
Live Demo · GitHub

- Rebuilt the school’s Google Sheets result portal as a Next.js and Supabase platform: Login ID and hashed PIN sign-in, results by term, printing, and failed-login lockout.
- Built a computer-based testing system: timed tests and exams, autosaved answers, one attempt each, server-enforced deadlines, automatic marking, and answers kept on the server.
- Developed an admin portal to add students in bulk, upload scores from Excel, publish results, and manage terms, tests and questions, secured with an admin key and Row Level Security.
- Added a student dashboard with one sign-in for results, tests and assignments (JPG, PNG, PDF uploads); deployed on Vercel.
